

Members of the Rental and Staging Network (RSN) are focused on keeping our clients and employees safe while providing event technology support during these unprecedented times.

We have created the following pledge to assure you and your stakeholders that we are doing our part to ensure a safe and successful event for all involved.

The RSN Pledge

- RSN member employees will not come to the job site if they have any symptoms of COVID-19.
- RSN member employees will complete a health survey each day of show.
- RSN member employees will properly wear a mask while in the presence of others while on show site.
- All shared hand-held devices such as microphones, remotes, and laser pointers will be properly cleaned between each presenter use.
- High-touch equipment such as laptops, wireless mice, keyboards, and touch screens will be properly cleaned during and after each show day.
- PPE will be kept on show site should anyone on the crew or client team need additional items.
- RSN member companies will follow all mandated regional health and safety guidelines.
- RSN member companies will cooperate with any contact tracing efforts in case of exposure.
- Proper social distancing will be practiced whenever possible to minimize risk and exposure.
- RSN member employees will be required to adhere to frequent handwashing and use of hand sanitizers.
- Sharing of food will not be permitted and all food and drink containers will be disposed of immediately after food is consumed.

Our company is an approved Member of the Rental and Staging Network (RSN). RSN brings together the industry's premier live event staging companies, forming a North American network of experienced partners that deliver expert outcomes for events of all types.
